TESTIMONIAL

I've had the pleasure of collaborating with Decorate With Char on numerous events. Together, we orchestrated several successful events over the last few years, including the HPE Festival, the Veeam CISO Round-table, and the Gijima Charity Golf Day, to name a few. Whether it's a sophisticated golf day, a memorable year-end party, a seamless corporate event, or an engaging festival, Decorate With Char possesses a remarkable ability to bring their creative vision to life, transforming ordinary spaces into extraordinary experiences. What sets Decorate With Char apart is their meticulous attention to detail and hands-on approach. Their proposals are consistently both imaginative and comprehensive, showcasing a keen understanding of the latest trends and a continuous supply of fresh, innovative ideas. Decorate With Char consistently goes above and beyond, dedicating themselves fully to both small and large events. This unwavering commitment not only demonstrates their professionalism but also makes every client feel truly valued.

TESTIMONIAL

Collaborating with Decorate With Char has been a pleasure, especially in our work together on the Miss Soweto pageant, Taste Menus and a variety of other projects. These include exhibitions, activations, conferences, and dinners. Decorate With Char consistently impresses us with their ability to generate outstanding proposals promptly, even under tight deadlines. Their adaptability to any venue, paired with a meticulous eye for detail and styling, allowing for seamless adjustments to fit any constraints. What truly distinguishes Decorate With Char is their commitment to staying attuned to current décor trends, ensuring the delivery of up-to-date and ever-evolving event décor. Their hands-on approach, commitment to events of all scales, and unwavering professionalism showcase a level of excellence that we highly value. Decorate With Char's innovative approach, attention to detail, and professionalism make them an indispensable partner for event décor and styling."
